

Both scopes use the same source universe. The adaptive policy retains the current reliability-dependent RNA thresholds, expression rule, nomination holdbacks and reviews. The strict sensitivity screen requires complete routine bulk RNA, positive evidence in scope, and no positive outside RNA/IHC observation. Strict compatibility remains conditional on measured coverage.